HJIL Skelton Lecture Series: Navigating the Future: The Interplay Between International Law and Technological Innovation

University of Houston Law Center Foundations Room

SPEAKERS

Sadia Mirza

Saturday, March 22 • 5:00 – 8:00 p.m. CT

Troutman Pepper Locke Partner Sadia Mirza will present at The Houston Journal of International Law's Skelton Lecture Series on Navigating the Future: The Interplay Between International Law and Technological Innovation. Sadia's talk will focus on cybersecurity/incident response and the legal obligations — on a global level — that could follow after an incident.

The series is aimed at bringing cutting-edge scholarship to the Journal and engaging the community on pivotal topics in international law.
