Misha Tseytlin, leader of Troutman Pepper Locke's Appellate + Supreme Court Practice Group, was quoted in the March 25, 2025 National Law Journal article, "Home Court Advantage? Justices Consider Which EPA Cases Must Go to DC Circuit."

"It is true that the judges of the D.C. Circuit are excellent judges and work very hard," responded the attorney, Misha Tseytlin of Troutman Pepper Locke.

Tseytlin said that, in the D.C. Circuit, he would face more constraints in briefing certain local issues than he would otherwise get in a regional circuit, later adding that the nuances of local air quality conditions "would get lost in the D.C. Circuit."
