The evolution of the legal operations role is changing the way legal departments prioritize, organize, and add value for their organization. This exclusive event is designed especially for legal operations leaders to help you navigate the evolving legal ops landscape. The summit is a valuable opportunity to share insights, examine trends, discuss challenges, and shape a strategic vision for the organization.

The event will kick off with dinner on Thursday, March 12, followed by a full day of programming on Friday March, 13. Topics will include market insights shaping current law departments, change management strategies, maximizing value with creative billing solutions, and employee engagement challenges/solutions.

To foster an intimate and collaborative environment for openly sharing successes and challenges, attendance is limited to a maximum of two legal operations leaders from each company.

Prior attendees have said the following about the Summit:

- “10000% Yes! This was an extremely valuable use of time and resources to attend this event. Please keep it on the smaller scale. I am already looking forward to attending in the future.”
- “Fabulous event! I really enjoyed the speakers and the content. The small group made the collaboration really easy and fun. I look forward to another great event!"

- "Thoroughly enjoyed this event. It was very informative and had lots of practical application. I thought the group size was great, great topics and format/agenda, great venue. Would definitely attend again."

There is no cost to attend the summit.

Registration will open soon. The link to register will appear here once it is available.
