When it comes to raising money from retail investors, there are many different considerations and issues to keep in mind. At this upcoming CLE-eligible event in New York City, we'll be covering essential topics related to raising retail capital through real estate funds, DSTs and real estate investment trusts (REITs), including:

- The Case for Retail Capital
- Market Trends
- Tax Structures and Key Considerations
- Legal and Securities Considerations
- Financial Reporting, Accounting, and Technology
- Best Practices
- Managing Time and Cost Barriers

Join Troutman Pepper Locke, Crowe, and Alliance160 to learn about the specifics of planning and launching real estate ventures with a like-minded group of local leaders.
