September 16 – 17, 2024

Troutman Pepper attorneys Lynda Crouse and Shannon Patterson will be speaking at the Bank Board Training Forum in Nashville, TN. Their presentation “Hot Topics: How the Changing Regulatory and Judicial Environment is Affecting Compensation Decisions in the Boardroom” will discuss how the changing legal landscape creates challenges in aligning pay with performance and how directors can set the right balance while navigating clawbacks, covenants, and risks. Topics will include the key regulatory and judicial developments that all directors need to know to have effective incentive compensation and equity programs to drive performance.
