

Firm News | January 30, 2023

Houston Association of Women Attorneys Foundation Recognizes Locke Lord's Mia Lorick as Rising Star Honoree

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Mia Lorick

RELATED OFFICES

Houston

Partner Mia Lorick has been named a Rising Star honoree by the Houston Association of Women Attorneys Foundation, recognizing an individual who has been licensed for less than 10 years and is breaking new ground in the legal profession. Lorick was chosen based on her ability to demonstrate outstanding professional achievement and success in her practice area through a record of ethical advocacy on behalf of her clients, causes and organizations. She will be recognized at the 10th Annual Premier Women in Law Luncheon on April 11, 2023.

Lorick concentrates her practice on commercial litigation, real estate litigation, energy litigation and civil appeals. She handles jury trials, bench trials and arbitrations as well as appellate briefing and oral argument, and she has argued before the Texas Supreme Court.