Mia Lorick, a Houston Partner in Locke Lord's Litigation Practice Group, was profiled in Houston Bar Association's The Houston Lawyer in its 'Innovative Community Leader' Q&A, recognized as a female changemaker, highlighting her impact through service, community and cultivation of the next generation of lawyers. In her feature, Lorick discusses her professional background, proudest achievements and the women who inspire her. Lorick also discussed why she founded the Suited for Success Scholarship, which awards law students the funds needed to purchase professional clothing.

"The impact is vast because it shows laws students that this is not an elitist profession, but rather one of inclusion and support," Lorick said. "I hope the scholarship motivates other people to give back and helps foster a community of support and mentorship."
