Thursday, June 17 • 12:00 – 1:00 p.m. (PT)

Troutman Pepper is teaming with SBDC@UCI Beall Applied Innovation Incubator to host a year-long monthly series targeted to startups and small businesses. Starting a new business venture? Thinking about creating a company? Join us for a discussion with Todd Boylan, where he will explain certain important differences between a corporation and a limited liability company (LLC). We'll be sharing information that will help you position your venture to receive external investments, bring in new partners and incentivize your team through equity.
