Tracey Diamond, a partner in Troutman Pepper's Labor + Employment Practice Group, was quoted in the Washington Post article, "How to Get the Most Days Off With Your Vacation Time in 2024."

The concept isn't new, says Tracey Diamond, a former director of human resources and employment litigator who is now a partner at the law firm Troutman Pepper.

"Traditionally, people try to plan their PTO around holidays to try to garner a longer weekend," she said.

Most of the federal holidays featured on the lists happen around the same time every year, so the lists shouldn't come as a big surprise. "Memorial Day, Labor Day, President's Day, Martin Luther King Day – they all fall on Mondays," Diamond added.
