Tuesday, April 29 • 3:20 – 4:10 p.m. ET

Brannon Millard will speak on the panel “ISO 42001 Standard For Artificial Intelligence” as part of the International Legal Technology Association’s (ILTA) EVOLVE conference. The program will take place on Tuesday, April 29, from 3:20 – 4:10 p.m. ET in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

ISO Standard 42001 refers to the international standard for “Artificial Intelligence Management Systems,” which provides a framework for organizations to establish, implement, and maintain a system for managing their AI development and deployment in a responsible and trustworthy manner, emphasizing ethical considerations and risk mitigation throughout the AI lifecycle. This session will explore what law firms need to consider from a management and standards perspective relating to AI.
