

Podcasts | April 10, 2025

Inside Maine's AG Office: AG Aaron Frey on Public Service

Regulatory Oversight Podcast

SPEAKERS

Stephen C. Piepgrass | Charles "Chuck" Slem

Speakers:

Stephen Piepgrass, Partner, Troutman Pepper Locke

Chuck Slem, Counsel, Troutman Pepper Locke

Stephanie Kozol, Senior Government Relations Manager, Troutman Pepper Locke

In this episode of Regulatory Oversight, Stephanie Kozol and Chuck Slem welcome Maine Attorney General (AG) Aaron Frey to discuss the unique aspects of the Maine Office of the AG. The conversation begins with Frey sharing his personal background and motivations for entering public service, before delving into the distinctive process of electing the AG in Maine.

The insightful discussion then turns to the inner workings and focuses of the AG's office, highlighting its jurisdiction over criminal law and efforts to combat the opioid crisis. Additionally, they explore Frey's role as co-chair of the National Association of Attorneys General Elder Justice Committee, alongside Virginia AG Jason Miyares. They consider the unique vulnerabilities of the senior population, aiming to protect them from scams and exploitation. The episode concludes with a friendly conversation, reaffirming Frey's commitment to the people of Maine.

RELATED INDUSTRIES + PRACTICES

- State Attorneys General
- Regulatory Investigations, Strategy + Enforcement