

Articles + Publications | July 2025

Judicial Scrutiny Intensifies: The Evolving Role of Short-Seller Reports in Securities Claims

WRITTEN BY

Jay A. Dubow | Mary Weeks | Bianca DiBella | Chloe Ann C. Lee

Courts have shown a growing skepticism toward plaintiffs' use of short-seller reports to plead loss causation for securities claims. Recent decisions have increasingly dissected when a short-seller report will fail to survive attacks from a motion to dismiss. This article will address recent case developments across various circuits before addressing the key takeaways from this narrowing trend.

Click here to read the full article in Business Law Today.

RELATED INDUSTRIES + PRACTICES

- Business Litigation
- Securities Litigation