Richard Reibstein, co-head of Locke Lord's Independent Contractor Misclassification and Compliance Practice, was quoted by Law360 examining the evolution and key developments of California's and other states' ABC worker classification tests for independent contractor status. Reibstein explained that recent legal developments in California and other states with ABC tests show how the application of such tests continues to evolve.

"Many of these laws are still being tested in the courts and are being subject to voter initiatives," Reibstein said. "What companies are not doing is reclassifying otherwise legitimate independent contractors."
