

Firm News | February 28, 2024

Lawdragon Recognizes Locke Lord Lawyers Among 2024 Energy Leaders

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Gerald J. Pels | Terry Radney | Bill Swanstrom | David Patton

RELATED OFFICES

Houston

Gerry Pels, Terry Radney and Bill Swanstrom, Partners in Locke Lord's Houston office and Energy and Infrastructure Group, have been recognized as outstanding elite advisors in Lawdragon's 2024 list of 500 Leading Energy Lawyers. The list is created based on a combination of journalistic research, nominations and vetting with peers and environmental law experts, according to Lawdragon. Pels was also recently recognized in the Lawdragon Green 500: Leaders in Environmental Law list.

Locke Lord's Energy and Infrastructure Group represents clients throughout the Americas, and in Africa, Europe, the Middle East and Asia across the energy industry, at every link in the value chain. The Firm is deeply involved with exploration and production; natural gas, oil and product gathering, processing, storage and pipeline transmission; refining; oilfield services; conventional and renewable power generation; energy commodity trading and marketing; infrastructure; and all parts in between.

Read the Lawdragon list.

RELATED INDUSTRIES + PRACTICES

- Energy