Legal and Litigation Trends in 2022

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Ronald Raether, Jr.

Ron Raether, a partner and leader of Troutman Pepper's Privacy + Cyber team, says privacy, data security, and information governance departments must collaborate to reduce unauthorized access to systems by criminals and make data operationalization more effective. He also says proper data mapping, governance, and classification are critical.

In a video interview with Information Security Media Group at RSA Conference 2022, Ron discusses:

- Legal and litigation trends;
- Attorney-client privilege and mistakes to avoid when documenting work;
- Collaborative opportunities for security and privacy leaders as new privacy legislation sweeps across the U.S.
