Troutman Pepper is a proud sponsor of the 2021 Life Sciences Future – MedTech conference to be held Tuesday, July 20 through Thursday, July 22, 2021 using a robust web-based platform that includes both live and on-demand features. The conference will include the most popular event features and will focus on various topics within the medical device, diagnostics, and digital health industries.

Troutman Pepper partners Nicole R. Sullivan and Deborah L Spranger will be speaking at the event. Nicole will lead an education session titled “Patents 101: What Every Start-Up Needs to Know,” on July 16, 1:00 – 1:30 p.m. ET, during the conference’s early access days and Deborah will moderate the fireside chat with Jean-Claude Dubacher, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of B. Braun Medical, Inc., during “Breakfast with the CEO” on July 22, 8:30 – 9:30 a.m. ET.
