Troutman Pepper Locke is a proud sponsor of the Life Sciences Patent Network (LSPN) North America Spring 2025 Conference, “Protecting & Leveraging Innovation in the Life Sciences,” on May 6-7, 2025, in Boston, MA.

Partner Steven R. Trybus will be the moderator for the panel discussion on “Beyond Patents – The Evolving Role of IP Lawyers in Life Sciences, on May 6 at 4:15 p.m.

In an incredibly competitive and complex landscape, intellectual property is a critical asset for pharmaceutical and biotech companies. While patents remain a cornerstone of IP protection, the role of IP Lawyers in these industries has expanded significantly beyond traditional patent prosecution and litigation. This panel will bring together seasoned IP professionals to discuss the multifaceted responsibilities they traverse daily, and how they leverage skills learned as an IP lawyer to other areas of business.
