Please join Locke Lord and FTI Consulting for a complimentary webinar series on market influences and legal and regulatory issues impacting the health care industry in 2024. Over the next several months, we will explore the current deal-making environment, the role of bankruptcy and restructuring solutions and enforcement trends.

Our first webinar will explore how recent deal activity and market dynamics continue to shape the 2024 investment landscape. In addition, our panel will address emerging health care legal and regulatory trends that may drive decision-making, deal structure and due diligence priorities for financial and strategic investments in various types of health care businesses and assets.
