Please join Locke Lord and FTI Consulting for a complimentary webinar series on market influences and legal and regulatory issues impacting the health care industry in 2024. Over the next several months, we will explore the current deal-making environment, the role of bankruptcy and restructuring solutions and enforcement trends.

Tuesday, July 16

1:00 PM ET • Noon CT • 10:00 AM PT

From acute care health systems to retail pharmacy, many sectors of the health care industry face financial headwinds of a magnitude previously unseen. In the second webinar in our health care series, our panel of professionals from Locke Lord and FTI Consulting will explore indicators of industry distress, provide analysis and commentary on the most impacted sectors, discuss the technical legal considerations and legal diligence required to protect distressed investors as well as address the key ingredients of a successful health care turnaround. In addition, our panel will discuss legal issues unique to health care bankruptcies, such as the patient care ombudsman and HIPAA, among others.
