

Firm News | March 31, 2023

Locke Lord Deal Named 2022 Loan of the Year by IFR

International Financing Review

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Brandon Curtin | Mason R. Marek | Christine Dreyer McCay | Jason Ulezalka

Locke Lord is proud to be recognized for its role representing Phoenix Tower International (PTI) in a $2 billion cross-border syndicated loan transaction that was recently named Latin America Loan of the Year at the 2022 IFR Awards.

Led by Jason Ulezalka (New York), along with Christine McCay, Brandon Curtin and Mason Marek (all of Boston), the transaction involved PTI subsidiaries in 17 countries across North and South America, allowing PTI to consolidate five separate credit facilities into a multi-tranche senior secured term loan.

According to IFR, the transaction was 2022's largest syndicated loan deal in Latin America. The International Financing Review (IFR), published by Refinitiv, is a leading source of fixed income, capital markets and investment banking news and analysis. The awards were presented on March 27, 2023 in London.

RELATED INDUSTRIES + PRACTICES

- Corporate
- Debt Finance
- Technology