(BOSTON) August 3, 2020 – Boston Partner Stephanie Massey, Co-Chair of Locke Lord's nationally recognized Public Finance Practice Group, has been selected as one of Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly's 2020 Top Women of Law, which celebrates the achievements of exceptional women lawyers who are pioneers, educators, trailblazers and role models. Massey will be honored during a virtual reception on Nov. 17.

Massey is an active member of the community, having served since 2018 as a member of the golf tournament planning committee for the Judge Baker Children's Center, which is the organization's annual fundraiser to support its work to promote the best possible mental health of children and families through the integration of research, intervention, training and advocacy. She has also volunteered time to various nonprofits providing support to underserved populations, including Pine Street Inn and Wrentham Developmental Center.

In her practice, Massey serves as bond counsel and/or borrower's counsel to many well-known, influential institutions. She has also served as underwriters' counsel and bank's counsel for numerous other entities in public finance transactions. Massey works on financings for nonprofits such as colleges and universities, hospitals, community health centers, private schools, senior living facilities and cultural institutions as well as solid waste disposal companies, housing finance agencies, charter schools and other governmental entities. Massey is a member of the National Association of Bond Lawyers and Boston Women in Public Finance.

Locke Lord Boston Partners Jennifer Capasso Mendonça and Allison O'Neil have been honored previously as Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly Top Women of Law.
