

Firm News | January 21, 2021

Locke Lord Ranked No. 4 by Deal Count in Texas M&A in 2020

Locke Lord is ranked No. 4 by deal count for M&A deals in Texas for 2020 based on Mergermarket data published by The Texas Lawbook, with 36 deals involving companies headquartered in the Lone Star State.

Just a handful of the notable deals credited to Locke Lord in the final quarter of 2020 include the Firm's representation of Race Rock Group in its acquisition of Structural and Steel Products, Inc.; White Deer Energy in the purchase of EV Infrastructure from Renewable Energy Infrastructure Group; Oliver Equipment Company in the company's sale to Sunbelt Supply by affiliate FloWorks International; Fengate Asset Management as local counsel on the acquisition of the Freeport Energy Center from Calpine Corporation; Stewart Information Services Corporation in its acquisition of NotaryCam; an undisclosed private buyer in an upstream asset acquisition for $50 million; Refuel Operating Company in its acquisition of the assets of Holmes Oil Company and Ebro Group, through its U.S. subsidiary Riviana Foods Inc., in the sale of the majority of Riviana's U.S. branded pasta to TreeHouse Foods for $242.5 million.

RELATED INDUSTRIES + PRACTICES

- Mergers + Acquisitions