

Locke Lord Ranked No. 5 by Deal Count for Texas M&A in Q1-Q3 2020

Locke Lord is ranked No. 5 by deal count for M&A deals in Texas for Q1-Q3 2020 based on Mergermarket data published by The Texas Lawbook – the latest of numerous top 10 rankings for Texas M&A over the past five years. The Firm was credited with 23 deals in the Lone Star State. Just a few of the notable deals credited to Locke Lord in the report include the Firm’s representation of White Deer Energy in the acquisition of a majority equity interest in Unicat Catalyst Technologies; Ag-Pro in the sale of its 21 John Deere dealership locations in Texas to Tellus Equipment Solutions; Main Street Capital in a completed portfolio investment to facilitate the minority recapitalization of Superior Rigging & Erecting; Park Place Dealerships in its sale of eight dealerships to Asbury Automotive Group; Catapult Energy Services in Covenant Testing Technologies’ combination with Stuart Pressure Control and Range Resources in the $245 million sale of producing oil and gas properties to Castleton Resources.

RELATED INDUSTRIES + PRACTICES

- Energy
- Mergers + Acquisitions
- Oil + Gas
- Private Equity