Locke Lord Recognized for Pro Bono Efforts by Casa Esperanza With 2024 Community Partner Award

Locke Lord received the Community Partner Award from Casa Esperanza, highlighting the Firm's ongoing commitment to providing essential pro bono legal support and counsel to the community. According to Casa Esperanza, a bilingual and bicultural behavioral health facility dedicated to serving the Latinx community in Massachusetts, the Community Partner Award honors organizations that have demonstrated exceptional support for Casa Esperanza and the community. The award was presented at a special reception on September 13 in Boston.

Locke Lord has a rich and long-standing tradition of giving back to its communities through pro bono projects. The Firm considers it an obligation and responsibility as lawyers and as human beings to provide legal services to people who cannot afford them.
