

Firm News | August 27, 2024

Locke Lord's Helen Turner Selected as Member of The Bretton Woods Committee

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Helen O. Turner

Locke Lord Houston Counsel Helen Turner has been selected as a member of The Bretton Woods Committee, an invitation-only preeminent nonprofit organization dedicated to effective global economic and financial cooperation. Members consist of leaders in business, finance, academic and nonprofit sectors, including many industry CEOs, as well as former presidents, cabinet-level officials and lawmakers, who share the belief that international economic cooperation is essential and best served through strong, effective international financial institutions (IFIs). As a member, Turner will help the organization champion global efforts to spur economic growth, alleviate poverty and improve financial stability.