Troutman Pepper is proud to sponsor the MADV Fall 2021 Virtual Venture Forum on Friday, September 24, 2021, which will be FREE to attendees! The forum will be featuring early-stage ventures from a variety of industries including technology, life sciences and consumer products. These startups have been working with the MADV coaches to deliver high-impact video presentations followed by a very interactive venture expo, where you will be able to meet and speak to the entrepreneurs and to each other.

Mid-Atlantic Diamond Ventures (MADV) is an independent organization that assists emerging, technology-based companies in their effort to build sustainable businesses by better positioning them for funding while increasing value at an early and crucial stage. MADV utilizes coaching sessions to prepare qualified companies for investments; helps ensure that investment materials are comprehensible, defensible and compelling; and provides input around critical aspects of entrepreneurship and scaling. Entrepreneurs that successfully complete these coaching sessions are invited to present their company at our quarterly venture forums, attended by accredited individual investors, angel groups, and venture capitalists. At these events, entrepreneurs engage one-on-one with potential investors.

To date, over 400 Mid-Atlantic companies have presented at MADV and have raised more than $640 million. MADV is located at the Temple University Fox School of Business and sponsored by prestigious service firms, major angel constituencies, as well as, local economic development groups.

Troutman Pepper attorney Sean P. McConnell is an Advisory Board Member of MADV and a coach for presenting companies at their forums.
