Thursday, June 20 • 4:00 – 6:00 p.m. ET

Troutman Pepper is proud to sponsor the MassBio General Counsel Roundtable on June 20, 2024, in Cambridge, MA. Partners Mindy Rudolph, Thomas M. Rose, and Daniel R. Sieck will be presenting on “Preparing Your Company for an Exit.”

In the ever-evolving business landscape of pharmaceuticals, biotechnology, medical devices, and pharma services, preparing for a company’s exit is a critical aspect that requires careful planning and strategic foresight. Whether it’s a merger, acquisition, or a public offering, understanding the nuances of these processes can make a significant difference in the success of your exit strategy.

Our panel of seasoned professionals and industry experts will share their insights on:

- Understanding the right time for an exit.
- Preparing your company for a smooth transition.
- Legal considerations during an exit, including due diligence and compliance factors.

The General Counsel Roundtable is a gathering of the top-ranking legal employees from MassBio’s life sciences member companies. The General Counsel Roundtable focuses on educating on challenges, hot topics, or opportunities.
