Assisted Living and the Law, hosted by Troutman Pepper Locke attorneys Cal Stein and Emma Trivax, offers timely insights and practical advice on navigating the complex and evolving legal landscape of the long-term care industry.

In this installment, Cal and Emma explore the potential impact of proposed Medicaid cuts on nursing homes and long-term care facilities. The discussion includes an overview of Medicaid's role as the primary payer for many nursing home residents and the importance of understanding legal discharge procedures for residents impacted by Medicaid cuts. This episode also covers the implications of a recent federal court decision on the upcoming staffing mandate for nursing facilities.
