DETROIT – Matthew J. Lund, a partner in Troutman Pepper’s Business Litigation Practice Group was recently named to Michigan Lawyers Weekly’s Class of 2023 “Leaders in the Law”. The program is dedicated to saluting Michigan lawyers who are setting the standard for other attorneys.

Those recognized as “Leaders in the Law” have made outstanding contributions to the practice of law in Michigan. Honorees have shown tremendous leadership and offer a wealth of expertise in diverse areas of the law.

At Troutman Pepper, Lund’s practice principally focuses on prosecuting and defending business disputes across various industry groups, representation of officers and directors, and environmental litigation. Lund utilizes his broad litigation and trial experience, along with his commitment to public interest to handle diverse complex civil litigation matters, including federal securities disputes, high-value contract and business tort claims, as well as federal CERCLA and state law environmental matters.

Troutman Pepper’s Business Litigation Practice Group is nationally recognized for its work defending and prosecuting high-stakes commercial matters in federal, state, trial, and appellate courts throughout the country. Attorneys are experienced in litigating complex multidistrict cases, class actions, and single-case litigations and represent a diverse array of clients from mid-market companies to Fortune 500 leaders.

Those recognized as “Leaders in the Law” will be profiled in a special section of the Michigan Lawyers Weekly on December 18.
