Troutman Pepper Locke is delighted to sponsor the Municipal Advisory Council of Texas Conference & 72nd Annual Meeting. This year's event, taking place on October 29-30 in San Antonio, Texas, will delve into economic, market, and industry-focused programming, including presentations from nationally recognized economists, policy experts, and public sector leaders. A featured Economic Outlook session will examine the current state of the economy, interest rates, monetary and fiscal policy, consumer spending and investment trends, and the impact of global and political developments, providing attendees with insights they can use to advise their organizations and clients.
