Lawrence Cameron will speak on the panel “Navigating Enforcement Crises: What Counsel Need to Know” as part of the Mecklenburg Bar Association’s CLE program. The program will take place on Wednesday, January 14, from 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. ET.

The session will cover immigration compliance issues and visa pitfalls; labor and employment impacts such as HR disruptions, internal investigations, and best practices under scrutiny; business law concerns including negative press, contract instability, and vendor exits; and insights from the government enforcement perspective on what triggers investigations and how agencies assess compliance. Attendees will gain practical guidance to help clients prepare for and respond to high-risk situations.
