Join CCBCA for a webinar hosted by Troutman Pepper Locke, where we will explore the latest developments in credit card bank compliance. Our expert panel will cover key topics, including current regulatory challenges, the increasing role of states like CA DFPI and the NY FAIR Act including potential federal preemption arguments, and evolving privacy issues. We'll also discuss the integration of artificial intelligence (AI) in credit card bank operations and its compliance implications, as well as best practices for managing FCRA compliance when using AI for decisioning, implications for credit scores, alternative data, and onboarding new AI vendors.
