Troutman Pepper Locke Partner Callan G. Stein will be a panelist on “New CMS Long-Term Care Surveyor Guidance: Key Changes Affecting Residents and Facilities, Compliance, and Litigation,” a Strafford webinar, on Tuesday, February 11, 2025, at 1:00 p.m., EST.

This CLE webinar will review the impact on compliance and litigation of the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services’ (CMS) updated long-term care survey guidelines effective Feb. 24, 2025. The panel will also discuss the impact on litigation of surveys and citations and best practices for plaintiffs and defendants.

The panel will help nursing home attorneys understand what the new CMS guidelines say and which guidelines will have the most impact on their practices, whether plaintiff or defense.

The panel will review these and other key issues:

- Do the changes reflect real world LTC residency and operations?
- How do the changes intersect with new staffing requirements?
- What changes are most likely to affect LTC litigation for plaintiffs and for defendants?
