Greg Casamento, Managing Partner of Locke Lord's New York office and Co-Chair of the Firm's Business Technology Group, has been recognized as a 2020 Client Service All-Star by BTI Consulting Group. The list includes general counsel who were singled out by clients for "delivering the absolute best in client service." Attributes of the Client Service All-Stars cited by clients include high levels of engagement, investment, savvy and anticipation of future needs.

Locke Lord has received numerous BTI recognitions. Most recently, the Firm was named one of the law firms that top legal decision-makers and Fortune 1000 clients said are best at developing and implementing alternative fee arrangements based on the Firm's certainty, streamlined approach and value. BTI also named Locke Lord as a firm that is "winning in the COVID-19 world" by jumping in and committing as the pandemic redefined clients' objectives, with inside counsel saying they would go to the mat to keep the Firm. The Firm was also included in BTI's 2019 Honor Roll of Most Recommended Law Firms for providing an outstanding client experience.
