December 8 – 10, 2021

Troutman Pepper is a proud sponsor of Opal's Marketplace Lending & Alternative Financing Summit. This Summit is an educational forum designed for investors, issuers, platforms, underwriters, banks rating agencies, lawyers, service providers, accountant, and other related industry professionals. At this conference learn and network with industry leaders to gain insight on the newest techniques to maximize returns and reduce risk exposure in this growing area of marketplace lending. Explore an in-depth review of the current landscape and what's to come in addition to hearing about rating agency methodology, legal, tax and structural considerations which will provide attendees with the tools necessary to stay one step ahead of their competitors.

Keith Barnett will be a panelist during the "Partnerships with Banks, Fintechs and Platforms" session, which will be held December 8 at 3:30 p.m. James Stevens will be a moderator during the "Financial Inclusion – Serving the Underserved" session, which will be held December 8 at 4:15 p.m. Shelli Willis will be a panelist during the "ESG Investments & Securitizations" session, which will be held December 10 at 9:15 a.m.

The conference will serve as an opportunity where a meaningful dialogue can be opened to address concerns regarding this dynamic segment of the market.
