Paying Twice: Protecting Clients From MSP Liabilities

SPEAKERS

Judith L. O'Grady

Thursday, September 30, 2021 • 1:00 – 2:00 p.m. ET

Judith O'Grady, partner and member of Troutman Pepper's Health Sciences Department, will be a panelist on the "Paying Twice: Protecting Clients from MSP Liabilities," webinar presented by DRI and MARC, on Thursday, September 30, 2021, from 1:00 – 2:00 p.m. (ET).

This webinar will provide an update on developments in Medicare Secondary Payer compliance. The discussion will include a brief overview of the MSP Act, MMSEA reporting and the PAID Act. The overview will be followed by a discussion of recent case law and practical implications, including potential exposure as well as how to mitigate risk through the course of discovery, proper release language, documentation, and the importance of communication across the bar and between the parties. The webinar will conclude with a discussion of what to expect next with respect to MSP compliance.
