The Penn Carey Law International Arbitration Association will be hosting their 6th annual conference on March 29, 2024, at the Penn Carey Law campus. This year's conference is themed "The Future of International Arbitration" with panels that will explore the latest global trends in arbitration, including ESG and Technology Disputes. Partner Maia Harris will serve as a moderator for Panel Two: "The Resolution of Technology Disputes Through International Arbitration" and Partner Zach Torres-Fowler will serve as a moderator on Panel Four: "New York Convention – Amended or Extended." Troutman Pepper is a proud sponsor of the conference and will be hosting a networking session in the evening.
