Jeremy Heep

Friday, April 3 • 9:00 a.m. – 5:30 p.m. ET (Followed by a networking reception from 5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.)

Troutman Pepper Locke attorney Jeremy Heep will speak at Penn Carey Law’s 8th Annual International Arbitration Conference, “Arbitration in an Evolving Geopolitical Environment,” on Friday, April 3, 2026. Jeremy’s panel, “M&A Arbitration and Geopolitical Risk,” will explore how shifting geopolitical realities—including evolving trade relationships, sanctions regimes, and regulatory frameworks—are affecting the strategy, procedure, and enforcement of international arbitration. Jeremy will contribute practical perspectives drawn from his experience representing clients in complex cross?border disputes.

CLE credit is available. The conference is open to students and practitioners alike.
