Pennsylvania Real Estate Development Law Seminar

Berwyn, Pittsburgh, and Harrisburg

SPEAKERS

David J. Tshudy

Troutman Pepper Berwyn Office: Thursday, May 9 • 8:30–10:00 a.m. ET

Union Trust Building Pittsburgh: Tuesday, May 14 • 12:00–1:30 p.m. ET

Harrisburg Hilton: Thursday, May 16 • 12:00–1:30 p.m. ET

The key to success of a real estate development project in any industry is careful attention to every detail and phase, all of which have legal and financial consequences to developers and their teams. A sound understanding of the Pennsylvania-specific nuances in the real estate development process is essential for a successful project. Please join Troutman Pepper partner and experienced real estate and land use practitioner David J. Tshudy for a discussion of the following relevant topics:

- The zoning and land development approval process
- Financial security and development agreements
- Nonconforming uses and structures
- Land use case law and legislative update

This seminar is designed for lawyers, real estate developers and investors, real estate brokers, municipal officials, bankers, civil engineers, land surveyors, architects and landscape architects.

One hour CLE credit available in NJ, NY, and PA. A copy of this invitation and Completion Certificate will be provided to PA Professional Engineers, Land Surveyors, and Geologists per continuing education requirements.

There is no fee to attend this event. Please use the registration link above to RSVP at your preferred location.
