In this episode of Moving the Metal: The Auto Finance Podcast, hosts Brooke Conkle and Chris Capurso dive into the latest Experian auto finance quarterly report to explore the latest trends in auto finance for the second quarter of 2025. They discuss key findings, including the rise in new and used vehicle financing, shifts in market share among banks, captives, and credit unions, and the surprising increase in loan amounts and monthly payments. The conversation also covers the growing trend of refinancing and its implications for the auto finance industry. Tune in to understand how these trends impact dealers and finance companies, and what they mean for the future of auto finance.
