September 12 – 13, 2024

Troutman Pepper Partner Seth Winter and George Makris III, executive vice president, general counsel, and secretary of Simmons Bank, will be speaking at the Bank Board Training Forum in Nashville, TN. Their presentation “Risky Business: Navigating Board Risk Oversight” will discuss how bank regulators are heightening expectations for board risk oversight. This session will discuss key elements of that regulatory guidance, best practices for effective board oversight of enterprise risk, and the relationship between the board’s and management’s risk oversight roles.
