

Press Coverage | December 5, 2023

Rite Aid, Asbestos Cases Hinge on Supreme Court Purdue Ruling

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Deborah Kovsky-Apap

Troutman Pepper Partner Deborah Kovsky-Apap was quoted in the December 5, 2023 Bloomberg Law article, “Rite Aid, Asbestos Cases Hinge on Supreme Court Purdue Ruling.”

Attorney Deborah Kovsky-Apap of Troutman Pepper Hamilton Sanders LLP said that 524(g) is a useful model of how mass tort claims can be viewed and dealt with in bankruptcy.

It should make no difference about what specifically harmed mass tort claimants, she said. “There’s no other practical way to deal with this,” she said.

RELATED INDUSTRIES + PRACTICES

- Bankruptcy + Restructuring