SaaS & Tech-Enabled Services Deal Conference 2021

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Christopher S. Miller

May 18 – 19, 2021

The SaaS & Tech-Enabled Services Deal Conference is powered by ACG Philadelphia, in partnership with ACG Boston and Pact, and brings together senior level industry specialist investors, investment bankers (preference to buy-side) and company operators for targeted deal sourcing meetings and insightful content from industry leaders. This conference takes place May 18-19, 2021. Chris Miller is serving on the event subcommittee this year and is participating on the “SaaS Exit Strategies in 2021” panel.

Join ACG Philadelphia for a highly efficient and productive event spanning two part days.

- Bring your senior level deal professionals, such as industry coverage bankers or investors to engage alongside business development and sponsor coverage teams.
- Conveniently schedule 16 highly targeted, 1:1 or small group meetings over two days
- Easily include the right team members & split meetings among your team to avoid “screen fatigue”.
- Control who you meet using our dual-party scheduling system: make out bound requests and/or accept in bound requests
- Flexible meeting options: use our secure private meeting rooms OR opt into a phone call if screen fatigue is feeling real right now.
- Quickly download calendar invites and share meetings via Outlook or Google.
