NEW YORK – Jay Dubow and Ghillaine Reid, co-leaders of Troutman Pepper Locke's Securities Investigations and Enforcement Practice Group, have been named to Securities Docket's Enforcement Elite for 2025, a list recognizing the best securities enforcement defense attorneys in the industry.

Dubow focuses on complex business litigation, with a special emphasis on defending against shareholder derivative and securities class action litigation. He also represents clients involved in investigations by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities, and various self-regulatory organizations, including the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA).

Reid focuses her practice on government and securities regulatory investigations, financial services litigation, commercial litigation, and corporate compliance. Drawing on her experience in government service and private practice, Reid regularly represents corporations and individuals in investigations conducted by the SEC, the Department of Justice, the FINRA, and other government and regulatory agencies.

The lawyers selected for the Enforcement Elite for 2025 are from many of the top law firms in the world and have been key players in some of the most significant SEC enforcement matters over the past few decades. Securities Docket is the hub of securities enforcement, hosting the preeminent securities enforcement conferences in the world.
