Shaping Policy for Sustainable Decarbonization

SPEAKERS

Josh Kaplowitz

Josh Kaplowitz, senior counsel at Troutman Pepper Locke, joins Chris Whitehead, host of the Perspectives on Sustainable Development podcast, and Eric Beightel, federal strategy director at Environmental Science Associates, to walk us through grid decarbonization and renewables development from a legal and policy perspective. Simply put, our current regulatory models aren't made for this. But if you decide to rip it all down and start over, how do you make sure the new model is more up to the challenge?
