

Speaking Engagements | August 21, 2025

Society of Construction Law North America's Insights on Domestic and International Arbitration Proceedings Regional Workshop

SPEAKERS

John J. Gazzola | R. Zachary Torres-Fowler

Troutman Pepper Locke's Washington DC office is excited to host a morning workshop, sponsored by the Society for Construction Law North America, focusing on domestic and international construction arbitration practices and procedures. We warmly invite you to join us for this event, where you can engage with industry leaders and colleagues to discuss pivotal issues shaping the domestic and international construction sectors.

Troutman Pepper Locke attorneys, Zach Torres-Fowler and John Gazzola will serve as panelists as of the regional workshop. The program will take place at the Troutman Pepper Locke Washington, DC office on Wednesday, September 10, from 8:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. ET.

John will participate in the panel "Emergency Relief – US, Canadian, and Arbitral Institutions" from 8:30 – 9:30 a.m. ET. Zachary will lead the session "How Fast is Too Fast? Managing Efficiency and Cost Implications of Arbitration" from 9:45 – 10:45 a.m. ET.

Registration and further information can be found here.

RELATED INDUSTRIES + PRACTICES

- Construction
- International Construction Projects