In this episode of Moving the Metal: The Auto Finance Podcast, Brooke Conkle and Chris Capurso delve into recent legislative changes affecting the auto finance industry in Connecticut and Oregon. They discuss Connecticut's Senate Bill 1357, which introduces updates on automatic renewal provisions, dealer advertising requirements, and express warranties. The conversation highlights the compliance challenges these changes pose for dealers and finance companies. The hosts also explore Oregon's House Bill 3178, focusing on new disclosure requirements, the reduced timeline for finalizing financing, and the right to void contracts. This episode provides a comprehensive analysis of how these state laws impact operations and potential litigation risks for industry professionals.
