Monday, April 8 • 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. CT

Alison Grounds will serve as a keynote speaker alongside other women leaders in business at the State of the Woman 2024 Conference on April 7 – 9 in Nashville, Tennessee. In her session, “How AI and Large Language Models Will Change the Future,” Alison will discuss how AI and ChatGPT can potentially change the personal and professional landscape. She will touch on how she helps clients navigate legal challenges presented by the rapidly and ever-changing world of technology.

Troutman Pepper is a proud sponsor of the State of the Woman 2024 Conference.

Alison recently spoke on the Mission Matters Business Podcast to discuss “The Impact on Generative AI on Knowledge Workers” and her upcoming keynote at the State of the Women 2024 Conference. Listen to the podcast here.
