Texas Access to Justice Commission Recognizes Locke Lord With Champion of Justice Award

The Texas Access to Justice Commission honored Locke Lord with its Champion of Justice Award in the large-size firm category, recognizing the Firm's exceptional fundraising efforts as part of the annual Justice for All Campaign. Once a year, as part of dues renewal with the State Bar of Texas, the organization asks Texas attorneys to donate to the campaign, the funds of which go to civil legal organizations throughout the state that provide legal support and services to those in need.

Locke Lord's recognition is featured in the October issue of the Texas Bar Journal.
