

Press Coverage | January 27, 2026

Texas AG's Vaccine Probe Draws Fire From Health Experts

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Sean P. Fahey | Lauren Morgan Fincher

An article written by Troutman Pepper Locke Partners Sean Fahey and Lauren Fincher was cited in the January 27, 2026 Law360 article, "Texas AG's Vaccine Probe Draws Fire From Health Experts."

In a recent client alert, Troutman Pepper Locke warned that the Texas investigation raises concerns for the healthcare industry nationwide.

"For providers, payors, and manufacturers, this investigation raises immediate questions about how vaccine-related incentives, quality metrics, and rebate arrangements are structured and disclosed, and whether similar theories could be applied by other state AGs," Troutman insurance attorneys wrote following the announcement of the probe.

RELATED INDUSTRIES + PRACTICES

- Health Care + Life Sciences
- Regulatory Investigations, Strategy + Enforcement
- State Attorneys General